(8) Moses because of the hardness of your hearts.--The force of the answer lies (1) in emphasized substitution of "suffered" for "commanded." The scribes of the school of Hillel had almost turned divorce into a duty, even when there was no ground for it but incompatibility of temper or other lesser fault, as if Deuteronomy 24:1 had enjoined the writing of divorcement in such cases.

Matthew 19:8 Jesus replied, "Moses permitted you to ...

And yes, ouch that hurt! What really intrigues me when it comes to Awareness, is that being 'aware' enables me to access pools of information all of the time. This is a relief to the perfectionist in me, because it means I don't have to learn everything - all I have do is tune in to my Awareness and allow that specific information to show up.

Hungry Hearts Chapter 1: On Melancholy Hill The fox in the green hoodie meandered beside a familiar medical clinic and then lazily down a long staircase towards a large warehouse along the docks. Rusty cars and weeds were scattered all along the roadways, and practically every window in the area was broken.
